Pine Shores Art Association

Artistically Speaking

From the President Linda Saladino

It seems like summer just began and it is August already. I hope you are enjoying the season and were able to attend our Art Patron Gala which is always a very special afternoon. Be sure to visit the gallery to see our wonderful Student Show this month. Join us at the General Meeting on the 5th, so you can vote for your favorite paintings. I hope the photographers are getting their entries ready for the Photography Show in September. It will be here before we know it. Stay well and keep painting! Linda.

Oasis Family Success Center in Barnegat needs volunteers 1-2 hours/week to help children learn to draw.

A few PSAA artists signed up for July and August to teach 20 children. Oasis program coordinator Tara Elia said, "I've never seen a workshop fill so fast! The community is definitely excited that this has been brought to Oasis!" If you are interested and skilled at teaching children, please join us. Call Mary Walker-Baptiste for more details 609-242-0799.

This program is made possible in part by a grant administered by the Ocean County Cultural & Heritage Commission from funds granted by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts.

Special thanks to STAFFORD TOWNSHIP for their ongoing support to PSAA.

Class Highlights for August & September:

Aug 26 & 27, Mark Saenger returns from his studio in metro NYC to lead an oil & acrylics class on how to make your paintings come alive through values and color. He's a charismatic teacher who will fill you full of confident energy and literally light up your landscapes.

Sept. 20-22, Lyn Asselta is here from her studio in Florida to lead a comprehensive pastel class. The cover article featuring her in Feb 2016's national Pastel Journal said, "Asselta builds landscapes that make viewers pause and listen to what a place has to say." Learn how in September.

Also...Glenys Baulderstone shares her Sumi-E classic ink wash techniques handed down from the Tang Dynasty; Nancy Edwards leads a hands-on Saturday watercolor workshop; Carol Freas lends valuable tips for creating successful lighthouse paintings; Renee Leopardi gets us back doing beautiful work in charcoal; Kim Cesaretti shows how to make a still life shine on canvas, and we can all benefit from Carol Nace's one-day instruction in mastering and utilizing color theory to make our paintings really work...plus, all this follows your delving into the secrets of good photography and developing gouache skills in August!

Ah, savoring a creative summer...Check out the list below.

Use Online Registration for classes and membership. To join Pine Shores, it's $30/individual or $45/couple & includes class discounts. PSAARegistrar@gmail.com.
