Pine Shores Art Association

Artistically Speaking

Note from Pine Shores' President Tom Rutledge

The first thing I want to say is a sincere thank you to our outgoing President Linda Saladino. This was her second time as President, but it was through the tough time of this pandemic, so thank you, Linda for a job well done. Now with the start of a new year, we all look forward as an association of artists to opportunities for expressing ourselves through our artwork. Happily we have a gallery at Pine Shores where this work can be exhibited during a variety of different shows designed to inspire us to do our best. To help us develop further as artists, we also have classes at Pine Shores. My recommendation as we move forward, is for all of us to take part in what is available and get involved - to be an active part of our organization of artists. Thank you, Tom
