

June 2020

Pine Shores Art Association

Artistically Speaking

Note from Pine Shores' President Linda Saladino

Hello all. Due to the Coronavirus, all indoor June activities are cancelled and July is still questionable. We are switching the "Spring-ish show" to August and the "Sepia Show" to July on line. Tom Rutledge and Dee Turba are working out plans as I write this. Dee, Tom and Dennis have been responsible for setting up the on-line shows which have been very well received. Thank you to them. We'll let you know as soon as we know our building can reopen. Although we are living through a difficult time, we need to look for positive things. I think we all have a greater appreciation for the normal and peaceful activities that we take for granted, like visiting friends and relatives, traveling, shopping in a store, celebrating and worshipping, to name just a few. This pandemic and now turbulent time will be in our memories, but we will get through it stronger and with a greater appreciation for the freedoms and quality of life we enjoy. Please take care of yourselves. I can't wait until I can welcome everyone back to PSAA. God bless. Linda Gallery Exhibits Continue with Exciting New Shows!

See them at www.pineshoresartassociation.org

While the walk-in gallery is closed, our ON-LINE SHOWS continue, complete with awards. Email a good, straight-on photograph of your painting (no glare, no shadows) to our webmaster Dennis Millar at dfmillar@gmail.com. Include your name, painting title and medium in the text of your email.

June 1-30 – Novice Show is on the PSAA website now. Awards will be posted on June 15. Please take a look at some of the fine work being done by our non-pro members.

July 1-31 – Sepia Show will be on the PSAA website. Email a photo of your work to Dennis between 6/22 & 6/26. Awards will be posted in mid-July. This show illustrates how values and shadows can come alive when working in a monotone. Don't have sepia in your pallet? Just mix burnt umber and black. Details in the attached flyer.

August – Spring-ish Art Show, originally planned for May, the annual Spring Show is rescheduled for August, when we hope and expect the studio gallery to be open; paintings can be any subject, doesn't have to be spring.

September – A Touch of Blue, a great new show requiring your painting or drawing to have a small blue focal point.

Duo Linda Kudos Congratulations to Linda Ramsay, whose painting "Shrimp" is pictured in the Spring issue of Home Magazine, and to Linda Saladino, whose painting "Catnapping" (detail here) was chosen for the Pastel Society of NJ's first online show.

Large print & other special assistance/accommodations are available if requested two weeks in advance.

PSAA received funding this year from a grant administered by the Ocean County Cultural & Heritage Commission from funds granted by the NJ State Arts Council, a division of the Department of State.

Special thanks to STAFFORD TOWNSHIP for their ongoing support to PSAA.

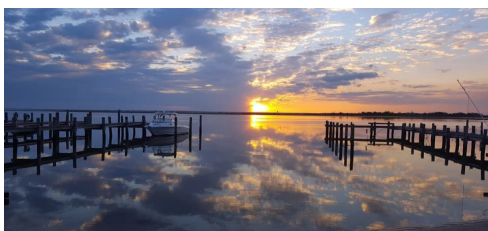

PLEASE JOIN US FOR SUMMER PLEIN AIR SESSIONS!

We'll send eblasts
with dates and locations as they are set.

We can still get together outside. Bring your own supplies and water, wear a mask when you're near others, and if you have disinfectant wipes, bring them for using public restrooms or sitting at picnic tables. (Also, please bring a small trash bag to take away everything you bring into the park.) It's fun and challenging to paint outdoors. Let's do it! Questions? Ask andreasauchelli@yahoo.com.

New Things Coming Up

As Linda Saladino said, PSAA is so looking forward to our getting together again, but please know we are approaching it carefully to ensure that all safety precautions with CDC suggestions and OSHA regulations followed. We're also looking at virtual and outdoor options. Plans are in the works, and we will keep you posted and send eblasts when there's news to share.

Hospital Rocks to Honor Workers

Pine Shores artists are asked to join a project to bring messages of hope and thanks to hospital workers. Just paint a few clamshells or small rocks and leave them outside by an entrance to your hospital. We're not in a big city where first line responders can hear our applause at 7 pm, but they can see our painted appreciation as they go to work. Thanks for participating.

Art Patron Show Postponement

Our annual July fund raiser is postponed to 2021. Questions? Ask Mary Walker-Baptist at 609-242-0799 or mcbap@mac.com.

Send your news & images to dfmillar@gmail.com to post on our web's "About Our Artists" page.
